

Training Courses, Workshops and Fieldtrips

Target Exploration Consultants conducts several Exploration and Development Geosciences Courses, E&P Country Reviews and workshops in the UK and MENA Countries. Click Course Title for Course Description, Instructor and Registration Form. Some of these courses can be followed by a Geological Field-trip Seminar to the exposed source, reservoir and seal rocks examples of the petroleum systems discussed in the course, in addition to organising standalone Geological Field-trips Seminars. Target courses can be modified to individual company's requirements and ran in-house. For in-house courses, or geological field-trip seminars Email: m.ibrahim@targetexploration.com or call: (+44) (0) 207 371 2240
