

Target Exploration

Energy Geosciences Research & Development

Falah Al-Jubori, PhD. Exploration Stratigraphy and Palynology Consultant, earned his Ph.D. in Palynological and Palynofacies Distribution of Petroleum Generating Organic Matter in Sedimentary Rocks from Sheffield University, England, 1979. He joined the Iraqi Oil Exploration Company (OEC) soon after completing his PhD studies, and rose in ranks from Assistant Geologist to Deputy Director of Research in 2003.

- (1980) Assistant Geologist, Geological Studies Dept., State Enterprise for Oil and Gas Exploration, Iraq National Oil Company (INOC), IRAQ.
- Well-site Geologist, East-Baghdad oilfield.
- Geologist, Exploration Laboratories Dept., State Enterprise for Oil and Gas Exploration, Iraq National Oil Company (INOC), IRAQ.
- Senior Geologist, Exploration Laboratories Dept., Oil Exploration Company, Ministry of Oil, IRAQ.
- (Chief Geologist, Exploration Laboratories Dept., Oil Exploration Company, Ministry of Oil, IRAQ.
- Deputy Director, Department of Exploration Research and Laboratories; and Head of Petrophysical Section, Oil Exploration Company, Ministry of Oil, IRAQ.
- (2003-2007) Expert / Geologist/ Deputy Director of Geological Section Manager of Exploration Research and Laboratories Dept., Oil Exploration Company, Ministry Of Oil, IRAQ.

Dr. Al-Jubori has twenty seven years of experience in a Stratigraphic Palynology, Palynofacies and Petroleum Exploration and Development Geology of Iraq and surrounding countries gained while working fulltime with the Iraqi Oil Exploration Company and the Ministry of Oil, Iraq.