NEW FROM TARGET EXPLORATION

✚ G.W. Target Presentations at GEO 2010 Conference in Bahrain 7-10 March 2010

Ibrahim, M.W. (2010). Paleozoic Volcanic Reservoirs of Libya: A Case Study of the Cambro-Ordovician Hofra (Gargaf) Facies of Sirte Reservoir, Tagrifiit (Ora) Oil Field. Poster and Alternative Presentation, Geo2010, 7-10 March 2010, Bahrain (In Press).

✚ NEW MENA09 Oil and Gas Conference (Aspects of the New Discovery and Production Cycles of MENA) 28 September Iraq & Middle East & 29 September Libya & North Africa@ the Imperial College, Kensington, London SW7, UK.

The seventh MENA Oil and Gas conference on the upstream oil and gas industry of the Middle East and North Africa (MENA O & G 2009) organized by Target Exploration and held as usual in the Imperial College of the University of London on Monday 28th and Tuesday 29th of September 2009. MENA O&G Conferences are dedicated to sharing knowledge and experience, and improving understanding of the Middle Eastern and North African petroleum geology, geophysics, hydrocarbon resources and upstream oil and gas industries. This conference theme was the E&P aspects of the new discovery cycle of MENA, with special emphases on the new oil discoveries in Iraq and Libya.

✚ NEW Undeveloped Oilfields and Remaining Undiscovered Potential of the Kotla Graben, Sirte Basin; Libya

This is a review of the exploration record, geology, tectonic history, and the operating petroleum systems of a typical Sirte Basin Graben. The study identified and listed several remaining exploration anomalies and undeveloped discoveries and potential “un-discoveries”.

✚ NEW Libyan Oil and Gas Resources

This is valuable documentation of exploration and production records, key players, hydrocarbon laws, past lessons, present challenges and future E&P potential of Cyrenaica, Ghadames, Murzuk, Sirt, Tripolitania and the offshore basins of Libya, as well as data of exploration wells, numerous maps, graphs, tables and other information in hardcopy or on CD ready for loading on laptop.
